AREA AGENCY ON AGING OF PASCO-PINELLAS, INC.

BYLAWS

ARTICLE I: NAME

Section 1. The name of this corporation shall be Area Agency on Aging of Pasco-Pinellas, Inc., hereinafter referred to as the Agency or the Corporation.

ARTICLE II: OFFICES

The principle office for this Agency shall be established and maintained in the county of Pinellas, State of Florida. The Agency may also have offices at such places within the planning and service area, as the Board may from time to time establish.

ARTICLE III: PURPOSES

The specific purposes for which the Agency is organized include the following:

Section 1. To operate as an area agency designated by the State of Florida, in accordance with the Older Americans Act of 1965 as amended, and as defined in the State Community Care for the Elderly Act, to engage in the planning, provision, and supervision of a broad range of social services, programs, and activities for older persons within a designated planning and service area designated as Planning and Service Area (PSA) Five.

Section 2. To receive and administer grants and other funds from the U.S. Government, state governments, local government entities, private corporations, associations and foundations, and individuals in accordance with the purposes of the Older Americans Act and the State of Florida Department of Elder Affairs (DOEA).

Section 3. To perform only those activities permitted to be carried out by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

Section 4. To exercise all powers generally allowed to not for profit corporations under the laws of the State of Florida for the purpose of carrying out the legislative intent regarding area agencies on aging as expressed in the Older Americans Act of 1965 as amended, and which include:

- (a) To promote the independence, dignity, health and well-being of older persons;
- (b) To serve as the advocate and focal point for older persons in the planning and service area.

- (c) To foster the development of a more comprehensive and coordinated system of services for older persons in the planning and service area known as PSA Five, which encompasses Pasco and Pinellas Counties.

Section 5. To operate as an Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) as designated by DOEA. The ADRC serves seniors, adults aged 18 and over with disabilities and their caregivers. ADRC functions include, but are not limited to, information; referral; long term care education; assistance with Medicaid eligibility for long term care services; intake/screening and wait list management for designated programs; and assistance with grievance/complaints for Medicaid managed long term care clients.

ARTICLE IV: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall consist of persons who shall be representatives from each of the following counties: Pasco County and Pinellas County. A director representative of a county shall be a resident of, or principally employed in, that county during service on the Board. A director who changes both his/her residency and principal place of employment from the represented county shall be deemed to have resigned from the Board effective upon the Board becoming aware of such change of residency and principal place of employment. Each director shall immediately inform the Executive Director of the Agency of any changes in his/her county of residency and principal place of employment.

Section 2. The Board's membership will be based on each county's proportion of the population age 60 or over in the Planning and Service Area, according to the following formula:

1. The total number of persons age 60 and over will be determined for the entire planning and service area.
2. Individual county population of persons 60 and over will be determined.
3. The individual county population of persons 60 and over divided by the total population of persons 60 and over for the planning and service area will yield the percent of board composition allocated per county.
4. The individual county percentage multiplied by the number of representatives on the board yields the individual county number of members allocated to the board.

Section 3. There shall be a maximum of seventeen (17) director positions, with the directors being representative from each county in accordance with the above formula. The Board shall divide the seventeen positions into three groups to be elected as provided hereinafter. The Board may from time to time decide to leave any number of director positions vacant and unfilled but will not go below a minimum of eleven (11) filled director positions.

Section 4. No person who is a member of a governing board, advisory committee or council, or staff, of a service provider, under contract with the Agency or family member thereof (defined as ascendants, descendants, spouse, siblings, uncles, aunts), will be elected to board membership. An elected director who attains one of the prohibited statuses shall be deemed to have resigned from the Board effective upon the Board becoming aware of such prohibited status. Each director shall immediately inform the Executive Director of the Agency of any changes which may result in his/her prohibited position status. No Board member shall serve concomitantly as an elected state or federal official.

Section 5. No Board member or employee of the Board shall have or hold any employment or contractual relationships with any person or entity which is subject to regulations of and/or receives funds through the Area Agency on Aging of Pasco-Pinellas, Inc.

Section 6. Prohibitions set forth in Sections 4 and 5 of this Article IV shall not apply to elected officials acting in their official capacity only.

Section 7. Board members may be removed with or without cause by an affirmative vote of a majority of the entire membership of the Board at a regular meeting. Cause includes but is not limited to: (1) unexcused absences from three consecutive regular board meetings within one fiscal year; (2) disruption of order during meetings; (3) actions that are in contravention of the overall mission and intent of the Agency; (4) actions that are in contravention of the instructions, policies and procedures and mandates of the Board; (5) an undeclared conflict of interest or failure to abide by the conflict of interest policy; (6) failure to perform assigned tasks or fulfill the duties of the position (7) failure to comply with Florida's Government in the Sunshine Act. Additionally, any member who is absent from three (3) consecutive meetings of the Board, unless excused by the Board and any member absent from four (4) meetings in any twelve (12) month period, whether excused or unexcused, shall be removed by a majority of directors in office voting for the removal.

Section 8. Each Board Member shall be elected for a Term of three (3) years. Board Members may only serve three (3) consecutive terms. However, Board members who have exceeded the term limit, shall continue to serve until such time as a new member has been nominated and voted by the Board, but may not serve more than three (3) months after the expiration of their term. A Board member may remain on the Board as a non-voting member for a period of six(6) months if they are nominated and elected by the Board as a non-voting member. After serving three consecutive terms or nine (9) consecutive years, a Board Member is ineligible for Board membership for a minimum of two years.

Vacancies that are filled with less than one(1) year of the term remaining will not be counted as a term for the purpose of eligibility to serve three (3) terms consecutively.

The term and time limitations set forth in this Article do not apply to Board Members who serve by virtue of their position as a County Commissioner.

A "Term" as set forth above is for three (3) years.

One year for the purpose of calculating terms is measured from Annual Meeting to Annual Meeting as that term is defined in Article VII, Section I.

Board Members elected to their own term will begin their term at the beginning of the Annual Meeting. A Board Member elected as a replacement member will begin their service on the Board at the next meeting held after they have been elected.

Section 9. Members serve as volunteers and shall not receive a salary, stipends or other financial payment. Reimbursement for expenses incurred during Agency business however may be reimbursed in accordance with DOEA regulations. Attendance at statewide and out-of-state meetings on behalf of the Agency may be reimbursed according to the Agency travel policy.

Section 10. A Board member may resign by giving written or verbal notification to the Executive Director of the Agency. Any member who becomes incapacitated or becomes unable to carry on his/her duties, shall resign or be replaced.

Section 11. Vacancies in the Board of Directors due to resignation, death or other reasons shall be filled by majority vote of all Board members present at any meeting at which a quorum is present. The new Board member elected to fill the unexpired term shall serve the remainder of the term.

Section 12. Board Members will complete a Level 2 background screening before they are their term begins.

Section 13. The Board shall establish a process to assess their performance as individuals and as a Board. That assessment shall be completed annually and shall be submitted annually to the Secretary of the Department of Elder Affairs.

ARTICLE V: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall be the governing authority responsible for developing policies and overseeing the Agency operations in accordance with applicable laws and regulations and the provisions of Agency Articles and Bylaws.

Section 2. In carrying out its responsibilities, the Board shall:

(a) Be responsible and accountable for the authorization of the execution of material contractual obligations per the policies of the Board;

(l) Board members shall conduct annual assessments of the Board and its work.

(m) Board members shall conduct annual assessments and or surveys of its officers' performance.

(n) Board members shall conduct an annual performance review of the Executive Director.

Section 3. The Agency shall adhere to the State of Florida Government in the Sunshine Law and The Florida Public Records Act. All directors and other personnel of the Agency will strictly comply with said laws.

ARTICLE VI: OFFICERS

Section 1. The officers of the Board shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. All officers shall be elected by majority vote of all Board members present at any meeting at which a quorum is present and shall hold office until the earlier of

(a) the next annual meeting of the Board of Directors at which time an election of officers is held,

(b) his/her death, resignation, or removal, or

(c) the installation of his/her successor but not more than three (3) months after the expiration of their second term. Except, a treasurer may serve up to nine (9) months after the expiration of their second term. No person shall hold more than one officer position at the same time.

Section 2. Duties of officers: elected officers shall perform the following duties:

(a) The President shall preside at all Board meetings and must use Robert's Rules of Order. The President shall appoint Board members to committees and shall appoint the Chairs of the committees specified in the Bylaws and established from time to time by vote of the Board; provide testimony relative to issues on aging before bodies conducting hearings and forums on topics of importance to older persons; serve as Chair of the Executive Committee and ex officio member of all committees except the Nominating Committee; prepare the annual evaluation of the Executive Director, with input from the Executive Committee, and recommend to the Board the annual salary of the Executive Director; act as a liaison between the Board and the Executive Director to help ensure the Board's directives and resolutions are carried out; ensure ongoing recruitment, development and contributions of Board members; review any issues of concern with the Executive Director; and work closely with the Vice-Chair to ensure seamless transition of officers

(b) The Vice-President shall perform the administrative duties and responsibilities of the President in the absence of the President and shall work closely with the Chair to ensure smooth transition of officers.

(c) The Secretary shall assure appropriate maintenance of all Agency records, shall assure an accurate recording of of all proceedings of the organization and a current list of all Board Members; shall require the sending of all notices and minutes of the Board and shall perform or delegate any other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the President.

(d) The Treasurer shall assure the proper compilation and maintenance of the books of account of the Agency. The Treasurer shall coordinate the preparation of financial reports as requested by the Board of Directors or Chair and will act as Board liaison with the corporations fiscal officer in managing the Board's account(s). The Treasurer shall serve as Chair of the Finance Committee and shall perform any other duties usually pertaining to the office of Treasurer or as may be prescribed by the Board or the President.

Section 3. Officers shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors from a slate presented by the Nominating Committee and nominations from the floor.

Section 4. Any officer of the Board may be removed from office, with cause, by a majority vote of all Board members present at any meeting at which a quorum is present. Cause includes but is not limited to: (1) unexcused absences from three consecutive regular board meetings within one fiscal year; (2) disruption of order during meetings; (3) actions that are in contravention of the overall mission an intent of the Agency; (4) actions that are in contravention of the instructions, policies and procedures and mandates of the Board; (5) an undeclared conflict of interest or failure to abide by the conflict of interest policy; (6) excessive absences at committee meeting; (7) failure to perform assigned tasks or fulfill the duties of the position and (8) failing to comply with Florida's Government in the Sunshine Act.

Section 5. Officers shall be elected for a one year term and may be re-elected for a second consecutive term after which time they are ineligible to serve in such elected position for a minimum of one year.

Section 6. Board members shall have at least six (6) months of board service prior to election as an officer.

Section 7. Vacancies in Officer positions due to resignation, death or other reasons shall be filled by majority vote of all Board members present at any meeting at which a quorum is present. The new Officer elected to fill the unexpired term shall serve the remainder of the term. A partial term served by an Officer due to filling a vacancy does not count towards the term limit provision in Section 5 above.

ARTICLE VII: BOARD MEETINGS

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the Board shall be held at a time and place established by the Board. The purpose of the Annual Meeting shall be: to elect directors to fill vacancies of those whose terms are due to expire at the end of the Annual Meeting and to elect officers; to receive reports of the President and Treasurer, and to transact all of the regular business of the Board.

Section 2. Board Meetings. The Board of Directors shall hold its meetings at the Agency's principal office or at such other places, within PSA 5, as the Board may from time to time determine; the Board of Directors shall meet at least nine (9) times per year.

ARTICLE X: INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Limitation of Liability. A Director or Officer of the Agency shall not be personally liable for monetary damages to any person or entity for any act, statement, vote, decision, or failure to take an action, if such Director or officer acted, or failed to act, in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action or omission was in the best interest of the Agency, and in criminal actions or proceedings if such Director or Officer acted without reasonable ground for belief that such action was unlawful except (i) liability for any gross breach or intentional failure to perform the officer's or Director's duties; (ii) for improper personal benefit, or gross recklessness or an act committed in bad faith or with malicious purpose or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard of human rights, safety or property. The Agency shall not be liable nor indemnify any officer or director that has breached his duty as an officer or Director as set forth in Chapter 617.0834, Florida Statutes, as same exists or hereafter may be amended. If the Legislature of Florida amends Chapter 617.0834, Florida Statutes, hereafter to authorize the further elimination of limitation of the liability of officer and Directors, then the liability of an Officer or Director of the Agency, in addition to the limitation on personal liability provided herein, shall be limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Laws of Florida. Any repeal or modification of this Article shall be prospective only, and shall not adversely affect any limitation on the personal liability of a Director or officer of the Agency existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

Section 2. Advancement of expenses to Directors, Officers, employees. The Agency shall advance expenses to any person who was or is a party to any proceeding or threatened proceeding by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer or employee of the Agency or is or was serving at the request of the Agency; subject in each instance to satisfaction of all applicable requirements under the Florida Statutes. Additionally, the Agency may make any other or further indemnification or advancement of expenses of any of its Directors, Officers, employees, as it may desire; subject, however, to the restrictions contained in the Florida Statutes.

ARTICLE XI: EMERGENCY BYLAWS

The Board has authority to adopt and implement emergency bylaws in accordance with F.S. 617.02027 to be in effect when an emergency exists as defined by applicable law.

ARTICLE XII: AMENDMENTS TO BYLAWS

These bylaws may be amended by

(a) a proposed amendment(s) approved by two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present at any meeting of the Board of Directors where a quorum is assembled provided notice of the proposed amendment(s) has been sent in writing via electronic or regular mail or facsimile to each member at least five (5) calendar days prior to any meeting where proposed amendments will be considered for approval and

(b) final adoption at a subsequent regular meeting or special meeting called for that purpose by two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present at any such subsequent meeting of the Board of Directors where a quorum is assembled provided notice of the proposed final amendment(s) has been sent in writing via electronic or regular mail or facsimile to each member at least five (5) days prior to any meeting where the proposed amendments are to be finally adopted.

ARTICLE XIII: ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Board shall ensure the establishment of an Advisory Council consisting of older individuals (including minority individuals and older individuals residing in rural areas) who are participants or who are eligible to participate in programs assisted under the Older Americans Act, representatives of older individuals, local elected officials, providers of veterans' health care (if appropriate), and the general public, to advise the Agency continuously on all matters relating to the development of the PSA 5 area plan, the administration of the plan and operations conducted under the plan.
