Please explain experience and/or interest in aging

The aging patient population has taken up residence in my heart ever since I started working more exclusively with the geriatric patient population in 2014. In the ensuing years I have found that trying to keep the geriatric patient at home is multifactorial. It takes a team to make it happen.

Race/Ethnicity White African American Asian Hispanic American Indian Other

Description of Present Employment (if applicable) Funeral Home Manager at Curlew Hills Memory Gardens. Part of a successful team that manages the operation of a family owned combination funeral home/cemetery/crematory/pet cemetery in central Pinellas County.

Education and/or Training Graduated from New England Institute of Applied Arts and Sciences 1982 Diploma in Mortuary Science
Certified Celebrant - Insight Institute, ODB Christian University - Ministry/Divinity, Ordained Priest - Independent Old Catholic Church

Boards/Advisory Councils You Serve On Not currently serving on any boards. In the past I have been the President of the Pinellas County Funeral Home Association, Served on the Advisory Board for the Mortuary Science Department at St. Petersburg College.

Volunteer Experience I Pastor a small mission church at the 55+ community that I live in and I assist at St. Michael Old Catholic Church in Dunedin both of which are self supported ministries. Members of my church and I visit nursing homes and provide musical entertainment on a recurring basis. I have a funeral ministry that provides funeral services for un-churched families regardless of their financial ability.

Talents/Hobbies/Skills Hobbies include golf and travel, my wife and I like to take cruises and spend time in the mountains. My skills are singing, public speaking and ministry.

Please explain experience and/or interest in aging

After nearly 40 years as a funeral director and many years in various ministry positions I have worked very closely with the older segment of society at some of the most troubling times in their lives. It continues to be a blessing in my life.
